Federal Law

Currently, federal law defines the term “criminal street gang” as “an ongoing group, club, organization, or association of five or more persons—

(A) that has as one of its primary purposes the commission of one or more of the criminal offenses described in subsection (c);
(B) the members of which engage, or have engaged within the past five years, in a continuing series of offenses described in subsection (c); and
(C) the activities of which affect interstate or foreign commerce.” 18 USC § 521(a).

The circumstances described in this section are that the offense described in subsection (c) was committed by a person who:

(1) “Participates in a criminal street gang with knowledge that its members engage in or have engaged in a continuing series of offenses described in subsection (c);
(2) Intends to promote or further the felonious activities of the criminal street gang or maintain or increase his or her position in the gang; and
(3) Has been convicted within the past five years for:
   (A) An offense described in subsection (c);
   (B) A State offense—
      (i) Involving a controlled substance (as defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 USC § 802)) for which the maximum penalty is not less than five years’ imprisonment; or
      (ii) That is a felony crime of violence that has as an element the use or attempted use of physical force against the person of another;
   (C) Any federal or State felony offense that by its nature involves a substantial risk that physical force against the person of another may be used in the course of committing the offense; or
   (D) A conspiracy to commit an offense described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C).” 18 USC § 521(d).
National Crime Information Center — Gang File

The definitions of “gang,” “gang crime,” and “gang member” of the Gang File (formerly part of the VGTOF) contained within the FBI’s National Crime Information Center (NCIC) share some similarities with those definitions used by the states:

“Gang” Definitions

- Defines a gang as “a group of three or more persons
- With a common interest, bond, or activity
- Characterized by criminal or delinquent conduct.”

“Gang Crime” Definitions

- Enumerates the exact crimes that are to be considered criminal activity.

“Gang Member” Definitions

- Has a list of criteria, some of which a person must meet to be considered a gang member.
- Requires self-admission at the time of arrest or incarceration of gang membership OR any two of the criteria set forth.
State Law

A review of current state laws for various states’ definitions of the words “gang,” “gang member,” and “gang crime” reveals the following information:

“Gang” Definitions

- Forty-three states and Washington, DC, have legislation that defines “gang.”
- Thirty-four states define a gang as consisting of three or more persons.
- Twenty-seven states include a common name, identifying sign, or symbol as identifiers of gangs in their definitions.
- Thirty-six states refer to a gang as an “organization, association, or group.”
- Twenty-five states and Washington, DC, use the term “criminal street gang” to describe a gang.
- Every definition includes criminal/illegal activity or behavior.

“Gang Member” Definitions

- Fourteen states have legislation that defines a “gang member.”
- Seven states have a list of criteria, some of which a person must meet to be considered a gang member.
- Of those, six states require that a person must meet at least two criteria to be considered a gang member.

“Gang Crime” Definitions

- Thirty-one states define “gang crime/activity.”
- Twenty states refer to it as a “pattern of criminal gang activity.”
- Twenty-five states enumerate the exact crimes that are to be considered criminal gang activity.
