

Anti-Gang Seminar for Law Enforcement Chief Executives

March 10, 2015 • Camden, New Jersey

Who Should Attend

The Anti-Gang Seminar for Law Enforcement Chief Executives is intended for police chiefs, sheriffs, and other law enforcement chief executives. Participants should represent jurisdictions with a strong and active gang presence.

The goal of the seminar is to advance anti-gang strategies by providing an environment for law enforcement executives to network and share their agencies' approaches to gang issues related to the seminar topics.

Registration

There is no registration fee. This seminar is made possible through funding from the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. Class size is limited to 30 attendees on a first-come, first-served basis. Register early to reserve your space. Register online at <http://s.iir.com/cnj3-10>.

Once your registration is received and accepted, a staff member from the National Gang Center (www.nationalgangcenter.gov) will e-mail or fax a confirmation memo. For security reasons, only those individuals having a confirmed advance registration will be admitted to the seminar, and new registrations will not be accepted at the door. Law enforcement credentials will be required at check-in. Seminar check-in will begin at 8:00 a.m. on March 10. The seminar schedule is 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on March 10.
