

GANG UNIT SUPERVISION

May 19, 2014 • Airway Heights, Washington

Who Should Attend

The Gang Unit Supervision class is intended for officers who are currently or soon to be assigned as supervisors of gang units.

Although this curriculum is designed for personnel who operate against street gangs, security threat group supervisors will be accepted on a space-available basis.

Registration

There is no registration fee. This class is made possible through funding from the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. Class size is limited to 60 attendees on a first-come, first-served basis.

Register early to reserve your space. Register online at <http://s.iir.com/Uv9acCKC>.

Once your registration is received and accepted, a staff member from the National Gang Center will e-mail a confirmation memo. Class check-in will begin at 8:00 a.m. on May 19. The class schedule is 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

This Gang Unit Supervision class is a separate event from the Northwest Gang Investigators Association's (NWGIA) Annual Gang Conference being held on May 19-23, 2014.

Registration for the NWGIA conference will not grant you access to the Gang Unit Supervision class. In order to attend this Gang Unit Supervision class, you must register using the link above. A confirmation from the National Gang Center will be required to enter the class. For security reasons, only those individuals having a confirmed advance registration will be admitted to the class, and no registrations will be accepted at the door. Law enforcement credentials will be required at check-in.

Cohosted by

- Northwest Gang Investigators Association
- United States Attorney's Office, Eastern District of Washington
- Western States Information Network

Training Location

Northern Quest Resort and Spa
100 North Hayford Road
Airway Heights, WA 99001

A block of rooms has been reserved at a contract rate of $112, plus tax, at the Northern Quest Resort and Spa, 100 North Hayford Road, Airway Heights, WA 99001, (877) 871-6772. Please reference NWGIA to reserve your room. Travel, lodging, and per diem expenses are the responsibility of the attendee.

Instructors

Instruction will be provided by experienced law enforcement practitioners.

Course Topics

Gang Unit Organization—This lesson identifies and discusses factors that should be considered when organizing a gang unit. The information included is intended to be used in the development of a new gang unit, but it can also be used to evaluate or change an existing unit's mission or structure.

Performance Measurement—This lesson provides an overview of the purpose and use of performance measurement practices in a gang unit.

Logistics and Security—This lesson discusses the importance of the organizational placement and physical housing of law enforcement gang units.

Suppression Strategies and Tactics—This lesson presents a number of strategies and tactics that can be used to suppress gang activity, specifically from the perspective of a supervisor or commander.

Questions?

For questions regarding registration, call (800) 446-0912, extension 287. Accommodations will be made for individuals with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Contact IIR for further information.

A 1-Day Class

No Registration Fee