

Basic Training for Street Gang Investigators

August 9–12, 2011 • Richmond, Kentucky

Who Should Attend

This training is being offered to sworn officers from Kentucky. This workshop will provide basic, entry-level training to:

- Officers newly assigned to work with street gangs.
- Officers with limited experience but little formal training in street gang investigations.
- Officers from small agencies for whom street gang investigation is an assigned, but additional duty.

Registration

There is no registration fee. This workshop is made possible through funding from the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. Class size is limited to 45 attendees. We reserve the right to limit the number of attendees from each agency to ensure that the maximum number of Kentucky agencies is represented. Register online at <https://www.iir.com/Registration/gang.aspx>.

The deadline for registration is Friday, July 22, 2011. Once your registration is received and accepted, a staff member from the Institute for Intergovernmental Research® (IIR) will e-mail or fax a confirmation memo. For security reasons, only those individuals having a confirmed advance registration will be admitted to the workshop, and no registrations will be accepted at the door. Law enforcement credentials will be required at check-in. Workshop check-in will begin at 7:30 a.m. on August 9. The workshop schedule is 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on August 9–11 and 8:00 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. on August 12.
