

Basic Training for Street Gang Investigators

November 13–15, 2019 • New Orleans, Louisiana

About the Training

This training is made possible through funding from the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The three-day class offers basic, entry-level training to sworn officers newly assigned to work with street gangs or those with limited experience and/or no formal training in street gang investigations. Course topics may include:

- Basic Gang Awareness: Recognition, Identification, and Documentation
- Developing and Managing Confidential Sources
- Regional Gang Overview
- Prevention/Intervention and the Role of Law Enforcement
- Gang Investigations in the New Era of Policing
- Interviewing Gang Members
- Gang Suppression Strategies
- Trial Prep for the Gang Cop
- Social Media Investigations

Registration

There is no registration fee. Travel, lodging, and per diem expenses are the responsibility of the attendee. Please let us know if you would like a lodging recommendation. Class size is limited, and it is recommended that you register early. Register online at www.nationalgangcenter.gov/Register/Basic.

For security reasons, only those individuals having a confirmed advance registration will be admitted to the training, and no registrations will be accepted on-site without prior approval. Law enforcement credentials will be required at check-in. Training check-in will begin at 7:30 a.m. on November 13. The training schedule is 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each day.

Prerequisite Training

The Street Gang Intelligence module of this basic training is available online and must be completed prior to the on-site training. Material from the online course will be referenced but not covered during the in-class portion of the training. This training is an 80-minute, self-paced course. To register for and complete the online Street Gang Intelligence training, go to www.nationalgangcenter.gov/Online-Training.
